1941

PREFACE

This permanent volume is a cumulation in one alphabet of all issues of the Index from 1934 thru 1940, to which the indexing of 199 additional volumes has been added. It is to be used with the 1900-1933 foundation volume. The 1934-1936 cumulation, the 1937, 1938 and 1939 annual volumes, and the July, 1940 issue may all be discarded, since this volume contains all the indexing included in those various issues. According to the plan of publication, there will continue to be semi-annual issues in July and annual cumulated volumes each year, with three-year temporary cumulations and seven-year permanent cumulated volumes. The next issue of the Index will be the July, 1941, semi-annual number.

Arrangement. The arrangement of the indexing in this volume is the same as for that in the 1900-1933 volume, the full details of which are explained in the Introduction to that volume. The only new feature is the use of † before the same essays referred to both in this volume and in the 1900-1933 volume. The daggers are used with both author and subject entries.

Acknowledgments. Grateful acknowledgment is made to the many and ever faithful librarians who have kindly given their helpful cooperation on this publication by checking tentative lists of titles to be indexed, by suggesting additional titles from time to time, and by giving us valuable advice on various questions pertaining to the Index. A list of collaborating libraries will be found following this preface. Acknowledgment is also made of the cooperation shown by the many publishers who have kindly supplied copies of their books for indexing purposes. The editor alone was responsible for the indexing up until 1939. Since that time she has been most ably assisted, first by Miss Agnes Cowing, and later by Mrs. Beatrice B. Rakestraw and Miss Ruth Mishnun. Mrs. Rakestraw and Miss Mishnun have also rendered valuable editorial assistance in the preparation of this volume. The help of Miss Catherine Carmody in seeing the work thru the press is appreciated, as is also the detailed clerical work done by Miss Vivien Lewin and Miss Louise B. Dell.
